MASTER'S TUXEDO RETURNING CUSTOMER CLOTHING

Attorney General Darrell McGraw's Consumer Protection Division met with Robert Kraft, part owner of Master's Tuxedo of Charleston, Inc., about the recent closure of the retail stores in West Virginia. Mr. Kraft said that Master's Tuxedo is contacting customers and making arrangements to return customers' clothing to them. If customers have not been contacted by Master's Tuxedo and still have clothing at one of the stores, they can call 304-760-1012 to leave a message with Master's Tuxedo to make arrangements to pick up their clothing.

Customers renting formal wear from Master's Tuxedo can contact Master's Tuxedo or Skeffington's Formal Wear to make arrangements if they have not already been contacted by Master's Tuxedo, according to Kraft.

Consumers should file a complaint with Attorney General McGraw's Consumer Protection Division at 1-800-368-8808 if satisfactory arrangements cannot be made with Master's Tuxedo.
